Re: Students for Fair Admissions v. West Point, No. 7:23-cv-8262, Preliminary-Injunction Motion (Doc. 6)

Dear Judge Halpern:

Plaintiff, Students for Fair Admissions, filed a preliminary-injunction motion on September 19, before a judge was assigned to this case. SFFA asks the Court to treat that motion as an order to show cause under its individual practices. Defendants accepted service on September 25, 2023.

SFFA writes, after conferring with Defendants, per §4(F) of this Court's individual practices. Defendants oppose the preliminary injunction. The parties have discussed their various needs and negotiated a proposed schedule. Specifically, the parties propose that Defendants' opposition to the preliminary injunction be due on November 17, 2023, and that Plaintiff's reply be due on November 29, 2023. The parties are available to confer with the Court at its convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

A telephone conference has been scheduled for 10/24/2023 at 11:30 a.m. to discuss plaintiff's pending motion for a preliminary injunction and request for a briefing schedule. The time for defendant to oppose the motion is stayed pending further order of the Court. At the time of the conference, all parties shall call the following number: (888) 398-2342; access code 3456831. Counsel for plaintiff shall notify all parties of the conference date and time and dial-in instructions, and shall, in advance of the conference, file proof of service of process.
